(Navratri special) Nava Chandi Havan

Nava Chandi Havan is sacred fire ritual that is dedicated to Goddess Chandi -- the fierce and powerful form of Goddess Shakti. She is primordial energy responsible for creation, sustenance and destruction of the entire cosmos. Goddess Chandi is an embodiment of power and all the divine forces, who protects us from evil forces and perfects our mind, body and soul.

By Worshipping Mother of the universe through the Havan one can become free of evil eyes, curses, obstacles and blessed with lasting health, wealth and prosperity.

Karwa Chauth, it means offering 'Argya' to the moon using an earthen pot known as Karwa on the Chaturthi of the Karthika month. The festival falls on the fourth day of the dark fortnight in the Kartika month every year.

Karwa Chauth is a one-day festival celebrated annually by married Hindu women in which they observe a fast from sunrise to moonrise and pray for the well-being and longevity of their husbands. The festival is also observed by unmarried women who pray in the hope of securing a desired life partner.
